

The Segal Group has submitted their recommendations to the Department and the Wage and Classification Study is in the final stages of review. The recommendations will impact both classification and compensation areas of administration. Information regarding the financial impact on the Department is currently being evaluated. Please stay tuned as Procedures on how and when implementation occurs will be forthcoming.